Product Catalogue

Who we are?

As Klerax, we define our founding goal as helping people feel better, adding freshness, cleanliness and joy to daily life.

To the new day, a fragrant, delightful touch...

We promote the quality time people devote to themselves and their loved ones and share their happiness.

We produce products that capture the pace of life, save time and water, and help you live life to the fullest.

We love bringing innovation to life.

We are aware that needs change all the time. We develop innovative sustainable products that you can use with your mind at peace with practical and hygienic solutions in every field of life.

Reliable, Quality, Principled!

We apply ISO and GMP quality standards procedures by adhering to legal regulations and legislation. We produce our products with a responsible production conscience. We care about human health and environmental ecology. Because we know the value of health and a clean environment.

OUR PRIORITY IS QUALITY AND HEALTHY PRODUCT

We do not use chemicals that are harmful to the living beings and human life in our products. We prioritize keeping our water resources clean and the life of living beings above all else.

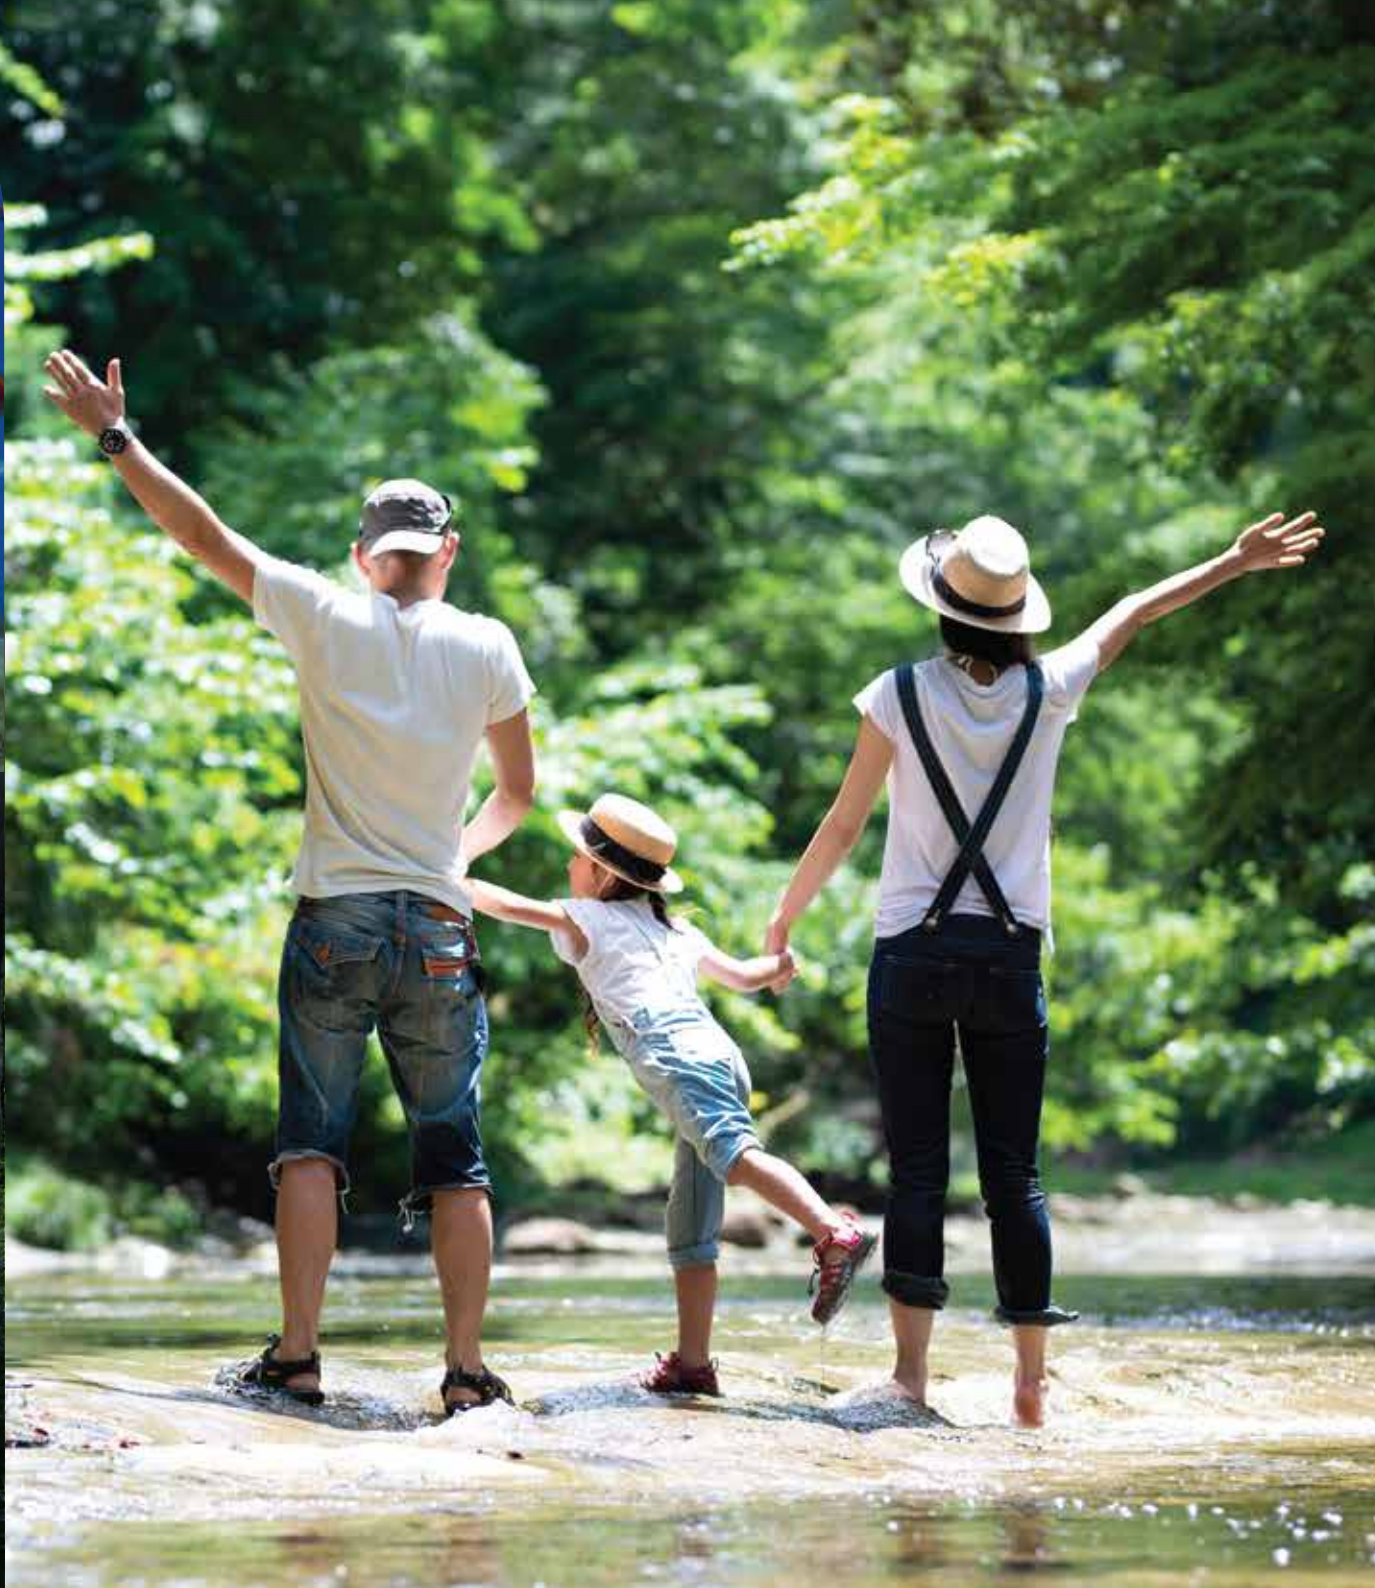

Because we are a part of nature, and we know that we have a responsibility to them.

HARMLESS FORMULAS

As much as we know the protection of our country's forests and habitat is a priority, we also care about the living creatures in it, and we make it a part of our mission to leave a sustainable life, clean seas and rivers for the future generations.

We reject the use of harsh chemicals that are not eco-friendly.

Vegan

Klerax employees, business partners and suppliers respect the right of life of every living creature. They are aware of their responsibilities towards nature. We do not approve of animal testing.

We are against any behavior that hurts them. We do not use any animal active substances, we do not test our products on animals. Because we love our planet very much.
